

Discovering French?

A1

With this general French course, you will :

(Intensive in person program, 72 hours over 4 weeks)

LISTEN

to understand and use colloquial and common expressions about yourself, those around you and your environment.

READ

to understand familiar names, statements and very simple phrases you may find in advertisements, posters or catalogs.

WRITE

to write short, simple sentences, give details about yourself (name, nationality, address).

TAKE PART IN A CONVERSATION

to communicate simply, provided the speaker speaks slowly, clearly and rephrases sentences if necessary.

EXPRESS YOURSELF ORALLY

using simple words to describe different situations, such as where you live and who you know.

af

Alliance Française
PARIS

Private higher education establishment

Discovering French?

Objectives for level A1.1

- Greet, say goodbye, thank, apologize.
- Introduce yourself, ask about someone else's identity, introduce someone.
- Ask for/give personal information, talk about hobbies and interests.
- Make simple purchases, ask for/give prices, express definite and indefinite quantities and measures, indeterminate quantities and measurements.
- Order in a restaurant.
- Ask about places, describe/characterize places.
- Ask for/give instructions, directions.
- Describe/characterize things, ask about things.
- Talk about your plans.
- Tell about your day.
- Ask for/give information about daily routines, a timetable.
- Make an appointment, ask for/give the time or times, give a date, suggest/accept/refuse an outing.
- Describe/characterize people.
- Describe a physical condition.

