

CHARTER OF THE SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT OF THE ALLIANCE FRANÇAISE DE PARIS

As a student of the Alliance française de Paris and a beneficiary of the scholarship for individuals in exile funded by L'Oréal, Kering, and Groupe ADP, I hereby pledge to:

- respect the values upheld by the association and conduct myself in an exemplary civic manner, in accordance with French legislation and the internal regulations of the Alliance française de Paris,
- attend all classes and activities included in the scholarship financed by the sponsors of the Alliance française de Paris.

1- Respect for the values of the Alliance française de Paris

The Alliance française de Paris extends a warm welcome to individuals of all nationalities, ethnicities, religions, gender identities, and sexual orientations, fostering an inclusive environment where diverse backgrounds converge within the same classroom.

I commit to upholding a positive atmosphere where every student feels embraced. I acknowledge that any form of violence, whether physical or verbal, or any act of discrimination against fellow students or members of the institution's staff will not be tolerated.

Furthermore, I pledge to honour the values of the Alliance française de Paris, as well as to demonstrate respect towards its premises and the resources provided to me.

2- Commitment

I pledge to actively engage in the educational activities outlined in the program and to dedicate myself to the course. Furthermore, I commit to conducting myself in a serious and responsible manner both within the institution and in the classroom environment. This includes ensuring that I arrive prepared for each class with the necessary materials needed for the effective progression of the lessons.

3- Regular attendance

I commit to attending all scheduled lessons outlined in the program, arriving punctually, and adhering to designated break times. I also undertake to ensure that my teacher signs the attendance sheet at the conclusion of each lesson I attend and to promptly notify the school in case of absence.

Furthermore, I am aware that my scholarship may be revoked if my unjustified absences due to imperative reasons (such as illness or justified family matters) exceed a total of one week, which equates to 3 days of absence per month for semi-intensive courses and 5 days of absence per month for intensive courses.

4- Relations with sponsors

As a scholarship recipient, I pledge to make myself available for meetings with the sponsors at the beginning, during, or at the conclusion of the programme. These meetings aim to provide an opportunity for me to share my journey, progress, and perspectives with the sponsors.

5- Sanctions

The General Director of the Alliance française de Paris serves as the guarantor of adherence to these regulations. Any breach of this charter may lead to disciplinary measures, including the possible revocation of the scholarship. In cases of severe violations, French law will be applied.

I, the undersigned _____ ,
undertake to respect the terms of the charter.

Signature : _____

Date : _____